- 1. Choose your category: There are three categories to focus your message: Healthy Living, Building Character or Celebrating Diversity.
- 2. Select your audience: There are two target audiences for this competition - students in grades K-6 or older students in grades 7-12. Your PSA message should be age appropriate. The judges and film festival committee reserve the right to move entries to a more appropriate category. The film festival committee and legacy partners encourage students to demonstrate making great choices and keeping your videos positive!
